

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 26, 2003

I am pleased to send greetings and congratulations to the members of the Pressure Sensitive Tape Council as you celebrate its 50th anniversary.

Hardworking and innovative men and women contribute significantly to the strength and prosperity of the United States. Your hard work and dedication add to the development and vitality of our economy. Your efforts help create jobs and wealth, securing a brighter future for many Americans and their families.

Best wishes for your continued success.
